

Mr. Rogers' focus is primarily on insurance and managed care regulatory and compliance issues. This includes policy and contract form drafting and filing, producer licensing issues, market conduct and compliance issues. Mr. Rogers will also work on issues before the National Association of Insurance Commissioners, National Conference of Insurance Legislators, Insurance Regulatory Examiners Society and the Society of State Filers, as well as any similar organizations.

Mr. Rogers spent 23 years as the Deputy Director of the Consumer Division of the Illinois Department of Insurance. He established the first Life, Accident and Health Market Conduct Unit in the nation. He established the HMO Unit in the Life, Accident & Health Section of the Department. Mr. Rogers also established the Cost Containment Section in the Department. He has been instrumental in drafting and implementing major consumer and market conduct revisions in Illinois and at the NAIC.

Mr. Rogers has chaired numerous Task Forces and Sub-committees, both in Illinois and on the national level. He chaired the Utilization Review Task Force in Illinois which looked at licensing Utilization Review Firms. He also chaired the Task Force on Viatical Settlements and was instrumental in the legislation which required licensure of Viatical Settlement Firms.

Mr. Rogers was a founding member of the CPCU Regulation and Legislative Section, and the Insurance Regulatory Examiners Society.

More recently, Mr. Rogers has been involved in establishing compliance programs for insurance companies and HMOs. He also has been involved in the promulgation of the Illinois HMO Regulation as well as the Utilization Review Regulation.
